 3. Was created no more than six months before the date of the individual's birth or six months after the date of the individual's birth.
- I. If an individual submits an evidentiary document required in this Section in a language other than English, the individual shall submit, with the evidentiary document, an English translation of the evidentiary document completed by an individual certified by the American Translators Association to provide translation from the specific other language into English.
- J. After review for completeness and compliance with this Section, the State Registrar shall return an evidentiary document submitted to support an application to register a delayed birth to the individual listed in subsection (C) who submitted the application to register the delayed birth.

- K. If the State Registrar determines that an application and the evidentiary documents submitted for the registration of a delayed birth certificate contain the required information, comply with the requirements for this Section, and are true and valid, the State Registrar shall:
1. Create and register the delayed birth certificate that includes a summary statement certificate that lists the evidentiary documents the State Registrar accepted as support for the registration of the delayed birth certificate; and
 2. Issue a certified copy of the delayed birth certificate to the individual who submitted the application to register a delayed birth certificate.
- L. If the State Registrar determines that an application or the evidentiary documents submitted for the registration of a delayed birth certificate do not contain the required information, do not comply with the requirements in this Section, or may not be true or valid, the State Registrar shall:
1. Not create or register a delayed birth certificate; and
 2. Provide written notification to the individual who submitted the application specifying:
 - a. The missing, incomplete, false, or invalid information or evidentiary documents; and
 - b. The 90 day time-frame for submitting the required information or evidentiary documents.
- M. An individual who receives the notice in subsection (L) may request an extension of the 90 day time-frame by submitting a written request to the State Registrar before the end of the 90 day time-frame. If the individual submits the written request before the end of the 90 day time-frame, the State Registrar shall grant an additional 90 days to the individual for the submission of any required information or evidentiary documents.
- N. If an individual who received the notification in subsection (L):
1. Submits all the required information or evidentiary documents to the State Registrar within the 90 day time-frame or, if applicable, the 90 day extension, the State Registrar shall create, register, and issue the delayed birth certificate as provided in (K)(1) and (K)(2); or
 2. Does not submit all the required information or evidentiary documents to the State Registrar within the 90 day time-frame or, if applicable, the 90 day extension, the State Registrar shall not create or register the delayed birth certificate and shall provide written notice to the individual who submitted the application for the registration of the delayed birth of the reasons for not creating and registering the delayed birth certificate and advise the individual of the individual's right to:

- a. Appeal the State Registrar's determination as prescribed in A.R.S. Title 41, Chapter 6, Article 6; or
 - b. Petition for a court order to create and register a delayed birth certificate as prescribed in A.R.S. § 36-333.03.
- O. If an individual authorized by subsection (C) receives the notice in subsection (N)(2), the individual may:
 - 1. Appeal the State Registrar's determination as prescribed in A.R.S. Title 41, Chapter 6, Article 6;
 - 2. Petition the court for an order to establish a record of an individual's birth as prescribed in A.R.S. § 36-333.03; or
 - 3. If the individual has obtained the required information and evidentiary documents:

- B. If an individual submits an evidentiary document required in this Section in a language other than English, the individual shall submit, with the evidentiary document, an English translation of the evidentiary document completed by an individual certified by the American Translators Association to provide translation from the specific other language into English.

R9-19-208. Validation of Information

- A. If a local registrar, deputy local registrar, or the State Registrar determines that information submitted for a birth certificate or for an amendment or a correction to a registered birth certificate may not be valid or accurate, the local registrar, deputy local registrar, or State Registrar may request an affidavit or evidentiary document that is necessary, as determined by the local registrar, deputy local registrar, or State Registrar, to validate the information.

- B. If the requested affidavit or evidentiary document is not submitted, the local registrar, deputy local registrar, or State Registrar:
1. Shall not register the birth or amend or correct the registered birth certificate; and
 2. Shall provide written notice to the person who submitted the information that includes the reasons for not registering a birth or amending or correcting a registered birth certificate and the right to appeal the State Registrar's determination as prescribed in A.R.S. § Title 41, Chapter 6, Article 6.

R9-19-209. Cancellation of a Registered Birth Certificate

- A. The State Registrar shall cancel:
1. An individual's delayed birth certificate if the Department determines a registered birth certificate for the individual exists; or
 2. Any registered birth certificate if the Department determines that the information submitted for the creation and registration of the birth certificate was fraudulent, a misrepresentation of facts, or based on false documents.
- B. If the Department determines that an individual's registered birth certificate was created and registered based on fraud, misrepresentation of facts, or false documents, the Department shall provide written notice of the cancellation of the registered birth certificate and the right to appeal the State Registrar's determination as prescribed in A.R.S. § Title 41, Chapter 6, Article 6, to the person who submitted the information.
